

The Huge Pumpkin

One day a boy was walking on a field when he saw a pumpkin. He decided to take it home with him for Halloween. That night when he went out to get a drink he looked at the pumpkin and he thought that it was a lot bigger. He got his drink and went back to bed.

In the morning, when he got up, he went in the kitchen to eat breakfast. He saw the pumpkin, it was definitely bigger! He got ready to go to school and he asked his Mom if he could bring the pumpkin for show-n-tell.

At school, it got even larger and larger. Then when it was time for show-n-tell the pumpkin even more larger that it was as big as the teacher! Then it still grew and grew and grew. Until, it was as big as the room, and then as big as the school.

The teacher said "We have to do something about that pumpkin". So, they all had a class meeting and they finally decided to all get a knife and work together to carve a face on the pumpkin. Then there was a great party and everyone in the school was invited to have pumpkin pie! And there never was a pumpkin like that again!!!

The Strongest Person

Mary was a girl mouse. She loved Tom, a boy mouse. They wanted to marry. But Mary's parents said no. Mary must marry the strongest person in the world. But who was the strongest person in the world? Her parents looked up at the sky. "The sun is the strongest person," they said. They asked the sun, "Do you want to marry our daughter?" "Your daughter is very beautiful," said the sun. "But I'm not the strongest person. The cloud is stronger. He can stop my light." So Mary's parents called to the cloud. The cloud told them, "I'm not the strongest person. The wind is stronger. I must go where he tells me." "Oh, Wind," said Mary's parents. "What do you say? Are you very strong?" "Yes, yes," said the wind. "I'm very strong. But a high wall can stop me. The mice parents talked to a high wall. "Please, Wall, can you answer our question? We are looking for the strongest person in the world. Are you that person?"

The wall said, "I'm very strong.

But look at my feet. There are many holes. John, the mouse, made those holes."

Mary's parents went to John and said, "you are the strongest person in the world!

Do you want to marry our daughter?"

"Yes," said John. And so Mary married John, and they were very happy.
